

Terre Haute Family Y

INDOOR SOCCER 2009

What: Youth Indoor Soccer

The Indoor Soccer program is designed to teach passing, dribbling, shooting, agility, and teamwork. The program emphasis is on basic skill development, good sportsmanship and positive attitudes. Teams are divided by the following grade levels: Kindergarten & 1st grade, 2nd & 3rd grades, 4th & 5th grades. The Y reserves the right to redistribute players in the age divisions if there aren't enough in one division to make four teams. If this happens there will be no more than three grades in one division. The coaches will be parent volunteers, so please check at the bottom if you are interested.

Pre-School Age Indoor Soccer

The pre-school indoor soccer program is designed to introduce to four- and pre-kindergarten five-year olds the skills of passing, dribbling, shooting, agility, and teamwork. Participants will learn the basic concepts of soccer in a clinic format.

Who: Boys and girls age 4 through 5th grade.

Where: Practices and games will be held at the Terre Haute Family Y.

When: Youth Divisions: Practices are one evening per week.
